Minority Corporate Counsel Association Celebrates 10 Years of Diversity Progress
Broadway-style in San Francisco

Washington, D.C. – In celebration of its 10th anniversary, MCCA presents “MCCA on Broadway,” a musical and theatrical production highlighting one decade of promoting diversity in the legal profession. This rousing performance will take place at San Francisco’s Palace Hotel on October 11, 2007.

Leaders from the MCCA corporate counsel community and other talented attorneys from the MCCA network will sing, dance, and perform in a rousing Broadway-style revue that celebrates the unique history of the organization, and pays tribute to those whose dedication to inclusiveness in the legal profession has empowered people and inspired leadership. The production will also feature cameo performances from Fortune 500 corporation General Counsel including:

- N. Cornell Boggs, III
Group VP & Chief Legal Officer
Coors Brewing Company
- Mary E. Snapp
Corporate VP & Deputy General Counsel
Microsoft Corporation
- Lauri M. Shanahan
Chief Legal & Administrative Officer
GAP, Inc.
- William L. Hawthorne, III
VP-Chief Diversity Officer & Deputy General Counsel
Macy's, Inc.
- Rhonda M. Bethea
Associate General Counsel
Del Monte Foods

Several other special presentations will be made during the evening, including a video tribute to past corporate general counsel winners of MCCA's Employer of Choice Award and the Thomas L. Sager Award, which will be given to the law firm of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP for this year.

“In ten years, MCCA’s research and programs have empowered individuals in the legal profession to embrace diversity and strive to have inclusive business environments,” says MCCA’s executive director Veta T. Richardson. “This event is not only a celebration of our 10th Anniversary, but also an opportunity to recognize the diversity progress that has been made in the Western Region.”

MCCA is celebrating its 10th Anniversary in 2007. It was founded to advocate for the expanded hiring, promotion, and retention of minority attorneys in corporate legal departments and the law firms that serve them. In addition, MCCA stimulates an ongoing dialogue of diversity “best practices.” MCCA accomplishes its mission through the collection and dissemination of information on diversity in the legal profession. MCCA’s headquarters are in Washington, D.C., and it also has an office in Atlanta.
